

The G Street B2B Collaboratory

1001 G Street, NW | 400E | Washington, DC 20001

Located in the heart of bustling DC, less than 1 mile from the Capitol. Direct access to DC Metro and the Grand Hyatt.

The G Street B2B Collaboratory is a self-directed, collaborative, flexible workspace shared by triple bottom line companies. More than a space, it's a place to impact people, planet and profits. The Collaboratory provides an exceptional value-added benefit for members needing a DC location and professional assistance to achieve goals while in DC. If you need help networking, lobbying, developing strategic plans or advancing your mission-driven work for a day, a week or a month, this collaborative space with a premiere DC identification is your community in DC.

Our vision is to develop the G Street B2B Collaboratory into the leading DC business B2B hub for breakthrough triple bottom-line environmental, sustainability, high road impact business advocacy convening, creativity, deal-making, funding, policy development and advocacy, and communications storytelling.
